And the Lord God planted a garden eastward in Eden; and there he put the man whom he had formed. And out of the ground made the Lord God to grow every tree that is pleasant to the sight, and good for food; the tree of life also in the midst of the garden, and the tree of knowledge of good and evil.

And the Lord God took the man and put him into the garden of Eden to dress it and to keep it, and the Lord God commanded the man, saying, Of every tree of the garden thou mayest freely eat; but of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, thou shalt not eat of it; for in the day that thou eatest thereof thou shalt surely die.

And the Lord God said, It is not good that the man should be alone; I will make him an help meet for him. And out of the ground the Lord God formed every beast of the field, and every fowl of the air: and brought them unto the man to see what he would call them: and whatever the man called every living creature, that was the name thereof. and the man gave names to all cattle, and to the fowl of the air, and to every beast of the field; but for the man there was not found an help meet for him.

And the Lord God caused a deep sleep to fall upon the man, and he slept; and he took one of his ribs, and closed up the flesh instead thereof; and the rib, which the Lord God had taken from the man, made he a woman, and brought her unto the man. And the man said, This is now bone of my bones, and flesh of my flesh: she shall be called Woman, because she was taken out of Man. Therefore shall a man leave his father and his mother, and shall cleave unto his wife: and they shall be one flesh. And they were both naked, the man and his wife, and were not ashamed.

But in the Third Chapter we read that the serpent was more subtil than any beast of the field which the Lord God had made, and he said unto the woman, Yea, hath God said, Ye shall not eat of every tree of the garden? And the woman said unto the serpent, We may eat of the fruit of the trees of the garden: But of the fruit of the tree which is in the midst of the garden, God hath said, Ye shall not eat of it, neither shall ye touch it, lest ye die.

And the serpent said unto the woman, Ye shall not surely die: for God doth know that in the day ye eat thereof, then your eyes shall be opened, and ye shall be as gods, knowing good and evil. And when the woman saw that the tree was good for food, and that it was pleasant to the eyes, and a tree to be desired to make one wise, she took of the fruit thereof, and did eat, and gave also to her husband with her: and he did eat.

And the eyes of them both were opened, and they knew that they were naked; and they sewed fig leaves together, and made themselves aprons. And they heard the voice of the Lord God walking in the garden in the cool of the day: and Adam and his wife hid themselves from the presence of the Lord God amongst the trees of the garden. And the Lord God called unto Adam, and said unto him, Where art thou?

And he said, I heard thy voice in the garden, and I was afraid, because I was naked; and I hid myself. And he said, Who told thee that thou wast naked? Hast thou eaten of the tree, wherof I commanded thee that thou shouldest not eat? And the man said, The woman whom thou gavest to be with me, she gave me of the tree, and I did eat. And the Lord God said unto the woman, What is this that thou hast done? And the woman said, The serpent beguiled me, and I did eat. And the Lord God said unto the serpent, Because thou hast done this, thou art cursed above all cattle, and above every beast in the field; upon thy belly shalt thou go, and dust shalt thou eat all the days of thy life: And I will put enmity between thee and the woman, and between thy seed and her seed: it shall bruise thy head, and thou shalt bruise his heel. Unto the woman he said, I will greatly multiply thy sorrow and thy conception: in sorrow thou shalt bring forth children; and thy desire shall be to thy husband, and he shall rule over thee. And unto Adam he said, Because thou hast hearkened unto the voice of thy wife, and hast eaten of the tree, of which I commanded thee, saying, Thou shalt not eat of it: cursed is the ground for thy sake; in sorrow shalt thou eat of it all the days of thy life; Thorns also and thistles shall it bring forth to thee; and thou shalt eat the herb of the field; In the sweat of thy face shalt thou eat bread, till thou return unto the ground; for out of it wast thou taken: for dust thou art, and unto dust shalt thou return. And Adam called his wife's name Eve; because she was the mother of all things living. Unto Adam also and to his wife did the Lord God make coats of skins, and clothed them. And the Lord God said, Behold, the man is become as one of us, to know good and evil: and now, lest he put forth his hand, and take also of the tree of life, and eat, and live for ever: Therefore the Lord God sent him forth from the garden of Eden, to till the ground from which he was taken. So he drove out the man; and he placed at the east of the garden of Eden Cherubims, and a flaming sword which turned every way, to keep the way of the tree of life.

We read in the Evangelism of Matthew, in the 19th chapter, where the pharisees come to the Lord Jesus, tempting him and saying unto him, Is it lawful for a man to put away his wife for every cause? And he answered and said unto them, Have ye not read, that he which made them at the beginning made them male and female, And said, For this cause shall a man leave father and mother, and shall cleave to his wife: and they twain shall be one flesh. What therefore God hath joined together, let no man put asunder. They said unto him, Why did Moses then command to give a writing of divorcement, and to put her away? He saith unto them, Moses because of the hardness of your hearts suffered you to put away your wives: but from the beginning it was not so. And I say unto you, Whosoever shall put away his wife, except it be for fornication, and shall marry another, committeth adultery: and whoso marrieth her which is put away doth commit adultery. His disciples say unto him, If the case of a man be so with his wife, it is not good to marry.

In 1 Corinthians 7 the Holy Apostle Paul answers those who wrote to him: It is good for a man not to touch a woman. Nevertheless, to avoid fornication, let every man have his own wife, and let every woman have her own husband. The Apostle makes it clear in Chapter 7: Let the husband render unto the wife due benevolence: and likewise also the wife unto the husband. The wife hath not power of her own body, but the husband: and likewise also the husband hath not power of his own body, but the wife. But if one of them dies the other is free to marry whom he will as long as it is done in the Lord.

Should a man and woman enter matrimony, each should always meet the other in love, so teaches the Apostle in Colossians 3: Wives, submit yourselves unto your own husbands, as it is fit in the Lord. Husbands, love your wives, and be not bitter against them.

Similarly, he shows in Ephesians 5: Wives, submit yourselves unto your own husbands, as unto the Lord. For the husband is the head of the wife, even as Christ is the head of the church: and he is the saviour of the body.

Similarly, the Apostle Peter in Chapter 3: Likewise, ye wives, be in subjection to your own husbands; that, if any obey not the word, they also may without the word be won by the conversation of the wives; While they behold your chaste conversation coupled with fear. Whose adorning let it not be that outward adorning of plaiting the hair, and of wearing of gold, or of putting on of apparel; But let it be the hidden man of the heart, in that which is not corruptible, even the ornament of a meek and quiet spirit, which is in the sight of God of great price. For after this manner in the old time the holy women also, who trusted in God, adorned themselves, being in subjection unto their own husbands: Even as Sara obeyed Abraham, calling him lord: whose daughters ye are, as long as ye do well, and are not afraid with any amazement. Likewise, ye husbands, dwell with them according to knowledge, giving honour unto the wife, as unto the weaker vessel, and as being heirs together of the grace of life; that your prayers be not hindered.

Finally, the writer of Hebrews in Chapter 13: Marriage is honourable in all, and the bed undefiled; but whoremongers and adulterers God will judge.

(Freely translated) If the parties are still willing under these guidelines to be married, and to have the church witness this ceremony, so be it.

On September 27, 1801, Hermann Fröse, from Kukuk, was elected as teacher. On December 6 he began this service, preaching his first sermon.

On September 29, 1805, I and Cornel. Allert, at the request of the Orlofffeld congregation, attended and served Communion (?), as well as the election of an elder from present teachers as follows:

Johann Horn	12 votes
Peter Dau	19 dito
Cornelius Frös	7 “
Jacob Bergthold	1 “
Jann Donner	129 votes

By majority vote Johann Donner was elected. On October 27 he was installed by me into this position. The introductory message, based on 1 Timothy, the gracious will of God towards humans was emphasized.

The sermon text was Ephesians 4: 11,12, from which was presented

1. God's gracious organization of the New Testament church
2. its wholesome purpose. etc.

13. Dirck, surviving son of Heinrich Harms, Wengeln
14. Harm, surviving son of Siemon Bestvater, Schlamsack

On April 4, 1786 Cornelia Martens, Nogathau, was born.

On June 25, 1801, we held a meeting with the brethren in our church because many of our members were leading an unchristian life of beatings, drinking, dancing, etc., and it was duly discussed and decided that such persons, who, in these ways have sinned against God and the church, confess and wish to abstain from the same, this time be forgiven, but in future this shall in no way be tolerated; but those who again make themselves guilty shall appear openly before the church and ask for forgiveness; and if, subsequent to this, no improvement follows, they shall be separated from the church. In this way all shall be treated in future, namely that noone shall more than one time of practising such debauchery and not asking for forgiveness but continuing in the same behavior, shall be punished with separation.

8. On May 15, 1829, Herman Fröse, Kukuk, died. Since Peters was now the only teacher (preacher), no replacement could be elected, because those elected to office did not start preaching. The congregation remained in this state until 1832. During that time my father and Cor. Pauls, Markushof, and Cor. Pauls, Kukuk, had begun.
9. In 1832 Jacob Peters, Markushof, was elected as elder and installed.
10. In 1864 both Cor. Pauls, Markushoff, and Elder Jakob Peters, Markushof, died.
11. And so in the following year, 1865, Johan Siebert, PrRosengart, was elected as elder and installed.
12. In 1856 my father, Nikolai Wiehler, had died, and in his place Heinr Nickel was elected as teacher in 1860.
13. Following a lengthy illness Elder Joh Siebert died in 1877, and I undertook the instruction and Penner, Tiensdorf, the baptisms for about 4 years.
14. In 1878 election for elder was held, and Heinrich Wiehler elected and installed on July 14, 1878. In 1867 Cor Pauls, Kukuk, and in 1871 Joh Pauls, Grunau, died.
- In 1870 Cornelius Wiehler and in the following year 1871 Herman Pauls were elected as teachers.

Markushof Kr Marienburg Westpr

On Jan. 2, 1826, our elder, Corne. Allert died at the age of 67 years, and in his place I, Herman Fröse, ?, was elected elder of the Markushoff Church on June 2, 1826, and installed on July 2 by Johann Donner. May the Lord our God give me, His unworthy servant, grace to carry out this important service to His honor and the church's needs and the wellbeing of my soul. Amen. That all my labor be begun and done in the Name of Jesus Christ, that He be my guide early and late until my days are ended. Amen Amen. According to the beginning words of the installation and the Apostle in 1 Corinthians 4: 1 & 2 and in Isaiah 62, 6 & 7 .

Page 1

On October 10, 1792, at the time the Propagation Table was closed, the Thiensdorf Mennonite Frisian Church endorsed and decided unanimously to keep records of marriages, births, and deaths and annually according to the Propagation Table to enter the same in a clean and clear manner in the church record book, and so prevent errors. Dated as above

Johann Siebert, Elder

To the honorable writer of this list.

Make note of the persons married and born, each in the designated space, deaths not in the usual manner.

Note everything correctly and well in order to avoid confusion, writes the wise man, Sirach, in the fourth chapter and gives clear and good instruction to each according to station. Keep and observe such rules because forgetfulness causes much confusion.
