The church register of the Evangelische Kirche Heilige Drei Könige in Elbing, West Prussia (now Elblag, Poland), Microfilm #742727 of the Mormon collection, includes a few Mennonite births from 1800 until the end of the register in 1816. This is NOT a translation. I have simply put the relevant information into a spreadsheet.

Note that most of the locations given were parts of the city of Elbing.

Some terms used in the transcription:

Kaufmann = merchant

Eigenthümer = owned their own property

Brandtweinbrenner = brandy distiller

Häker = owned a general store

Gewürstkrämer = spice merchant
