

Census of Mennonites located in Ostrog: 30 September 1819

Russian State Historical Archives (RGIA)
Fond 383, Opis 29, Delo 1212
Pages 225 - 240

Translated by Sergei Chaiderman (August 1997); revised by Glenn Penner (December 2024)

Census of Mennonites who are located on the Ostrog estate with a record of the numbers of families, where they came from, when they settled, and on whose land they settled. Compiled on September 30th, 1819.

Notes by Glenn Penner:

The number of people in this census are: Karolswald – 163; Antonovka – 162.
Total – 326.

My comments or inserted text is in square brackets.

All names have been modified to more recognizable forms. Teresa has been changed to Sara. Note that Karl is usually given to those named Kornelius. Entries which were difficult to read or interpret have been highlighted in yellow.

Some children found in the GRanDMA [GM] database are missing from this census.

In some cases families matched up with those in the GM database, except that the wife's name is different. In such cases the household head may have remarried.

Register of Mennonites who are residents of Ostrog (estate) in villages of Slobadka (Karolswalde) and Antonovka.

This is the register for Karolswalde:

These Mennonites settled on land owned by the Prince Iublovsk (sk) [Jabłonowski] Ostrog estate in the village of Slobodka (Karolswalde) in 1801, where they presently live. These Mennonites left Prussian soils from the region of Kestrin.

Note: these people were actually living in Antonovka.
