

List of Chortitza Settlement Members of Mennonite Congregations: 1923

State Archive of the Zaporizhzhia Region, Zaporizhzhia, Ukraine Fond 235, Opis 5, Delo 5

Glenn Penner (gpenner@uoguelph.ca), Elfriede Rempel, and Wilhelm Friesen

During the 1920s the communist government in the Zaporizhzhia region compiled several lists of Mennonite church members for the former Chortitza settlement. One example can be found here. The most extensive list is that for 1923. It contains information on 4,225 members of various Mennonite congregations.

This document has been available on microfilm for several years. Unfortunately, much of the microfilm copy is unreadable or barely readable. In 2024 Glenn Penner was able to hire someone to go into the Zaporizhzhia archives and make good high resolution colour copies. These were translated from Russian to German by Willi Friesen and organized and incorporated into a spreadsheet by Glenn Penner. The data was added to the GRandMA database by Elfriede, followed by editing by Glenn Penner.

All comments and additions made by the translators and editors of this document are in square brackets.

1. # (number): These are not church membership numbers. They are arbitrary numbers used to keep track of people within the original document. There are a few cases where we suspect someone appeared twice in the list and in those cases the other appearance is cross-referenced in square brackets.
2. Surname, First Name Patronymic: Since this document is written in Russian (Cyrillic alphabet) and constructed by officials of the communist party, the spelling of the names is completely meaningless. We have used common/standard versions of surnames and first names. These names do not necessarily represent how these people actually wrote their names. Note that surnames for married women and widows are the same as their husbands' surnames. Names occasionally appear twice on the list. Such instances are indicated in square brackets.
3. Birth Year: These are given in the original. In a few cases full birth dates are given, using the notation dd.mm.yyyy, and, in a few cases, there is no information given in the original.
4. Gender: A few of these were misassigned in the original and have been corrected.
5. Member: All but a few entries are for regular members of the congregations. Those non-member entries are for officials of the church.
6. Occupation: Rather than retranslating the German translation of the original Russian into English, I have left the German translation (done by someone completely fluent in both German and Russian).
7. Status: This indicates economic status. There is no information on the criteria used to determine "status."
8. Education: Most members had an elementary school education.
9. Location: This is presumably the village of residence.
10. GRandMA number: these individuals in the list were assigned GM numbers. Any person who could not be identified in the database was assigned a new number. Several people who were obviously not of Mennonite ancestry and were not known to have married Mennonites were not assigned GM numbers.
11. Congregation: The names of the congregations were not given in the original and we have provided the best fitting name we could think of. The list covers the following: Mennonite Church (3,319 members), Evangelical Christian Mennonite (103), Mennonite Church in Yazykovo (539), and Mennonite Brethren (261). Missing is the Frisian congregation (which was usually referred to as the "Kronsweide" congregation), which had members mostly in Kronsweide, Schoenwiese and Kronsgarten.
