The following table contains information obtained from a listing of farms (Wirthschaften) purchased by Mennonites who had emigrated from Prussia, presumably since the previous Russian census of 1816.

The following is not a translation. I have extracted all genealogically relevant information from the original document, which was written in Gothic German. Occupations are given in the original German. Since the spellings of names in this document are meaningless (these are NOT signatures), I have standardized all first and last names.
