

Tax-free Years and Settlement Support for Mennonites Settling in the Molotschna Settlement: 1817 – 1825, and 1828

St. Petersburg Archives (RGIA)
Fond 383 Opis 29 Delo 541

Translated by Willi Friesen and Glenn Penner (gpenner@uoguelph.ca)

Mennonites settling in Russia were given ten tax-free years. Those settlers were also provided with funds to use for building a house and establishing a farm.

Most, if not all, of these families can be found on pages 356 to 373 in Benjamin H Unruh's book and pages 103 to 210 of Peter Rempel's book. Some can also be found here.

Personal and location names have been standardized on translation from Russian.

I. List of Mennonites who were settled in the Molotschna colonies, Tauria Province, Uyezd Melitopol, and who were granted privileges from 1816–1825 and 1828. It also documents how much money from the state treasury has been paid out to individuals in economic support.
